

Check out ItsLearning if you can - you could share your book reviews on there!

Super Sport! Reading, Writing, Spelling

You could turn your writing into either a virtual book or news report. If you've got it, think what technology you could use to bring it to life!

Reading

Daily reading and listening to audio books online - write a review about what you've read!

Reading Comprehension

Read the information about Usain Bolt and answer the questions: there are 3 levels to choose from - look at the

Writing Skills: Using Parenthesis

Look at the picture and create sentences that use parenthesis and the correct punctuation. Parenthesis is extra information in a sentence. It can be show using three types of punctuation brackets, dashes and commas.

As the sprinter crossed the line, the stadium - which was jam packed - erupted.

Harry Kane (England number 9) scored the winning goals.

Anthony Joshua, who was over the moon, celebrated the world title.

Spelling

Learn them and have your own test on Friday!

1. shoulder
2. smoulder
3. mould
4. thrown
5. known
6. blown
7. window
8. shallow
9. soul
10. poultry

Writing: Extended Pieces

Narrative

Write your own story or diary entry about an epic sporting event or match. You could use the picture as your inspiration or think of your own idea. You could use this story start...

It was the greatest match the world had ever seen! The boy's colossal legs waded through the water, sending shockwaves through the city engulfed in shadow. With a loud grunt, the enormous child lunged towards the sun, ready to take the shot...

Non-Narrative

Choose a sporting moment from any point in history (it could be one you have taken part in or a well known one). Using the example about the Winter Olympics as a model, write a newspaper article about it. Stuck for ideas?

England win the cricket world cup in a super over!

England win the Commonwealth Gold for netball in the final minute!

Usain Bolt beats the 100m world record!

Alistair Browlee helps his brother over the finish line in a triathlon.

Roger Bannister's miracle mile!